

Don't let a few credits keep you from the career you've always wanted.

NOW is the time to complete your degree and help is available.

FSW's Second Look initiative invites students who previously attempted college but did not complete a credential to give FSW, and more importantly to give yourself, a second look.

"We know the transformative power of a college degree. During this time of economic uncertainty, we invite former students to give FSW a second look," said FSW's President, Dr. Jeffery Allbritten. "We have increased flexibility in course schedules and modalities and are eager to support returning adult learners achieve their academic goals."

FGCU's Return to the Nest initiative offers personalized coaching, navigation and financial assistance for all students to finish their degrees.

"FGCU is a perfect fit for learners that previously earned college credits, but haven't graduated; we have programs for everyone," said FGCU President Dr. Mike Martin. "We've got to work to get students to finish the credentials they need to succeed and help our economy and encourage them to stay here in Southwest Florida."
